Exciting summer in store for Wallace and the Valley

Representatives of area attractions and businesses came to the June 5 Chamber meeting and shared what is new and different this summer.

Here are some highlights:

Fourth of July—Kellogg has planned a full day of music, vendor booths, fireworks, breakfast, parade and more to celebrate July 4.

Auction in the Street—Come downtown in Wallace on Saturday, July 6, at 11 a.m. for this new event. Bring something to be auctioned, or see what others have to sell.

Sixth Street Theater—The theater is celebrating its 30th year, and implementing an online ticket system. The melodrama “Lookout, Mullan, or Lookout Mullan!” opens July 3 with shows Wednesday-Saturday at 7 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m. All seats $10. The August show, “Mining Madness at the Mill, or A Big Bang for Bunker Hill” runs July 31-August 25.

Blues Festival—The 2nd annual Blues Fest July 12-13 is expected to bring up to 4,000 people to Wallace. Music free on Friday; admission charged for Saturday. There will be four music venues and 20+ bands. New this year will be the Kiwanis Club breakfast for $10 per person, which includes one cocktail. Trolleys will run between Wallace and Kellogg and Sather Field.

ATV Jamboree—This annual event, July 21-27, is adding a Women’s Night downtown on Tuesday, July 23. The parade theme is “Redneck,” guaranteed to bring out some interesting décorations.

SMC Foundation—Shoshone Medical Center Foundation will hold its Summer Wine fundraising event

The “blues” will light up downtown July 12-13.

July 25 at the base of Silver Mountain.

Accordion Fest—The 3rd annual Accordion Festival August 9-11 is adding a dance to its second night of concert, and introducing a youth competition. The Gazebo will be home to a full lineup of afternoon entertainment, and the Elks Lodge will house dance lessons, workshops and concerts. A special theatrical event is planned at the Sixth Street Theater.

Oasis Bordello—The museum will be featured on an XM Radio show in the near future. Summer hours have been extended to 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Saturday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday.

Mining Museum—The museum has new signage and has added to its wealth of digitized records for those interested in research.

Depot Museum—The museum is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and has new and changing exhibits. Summer events will include street performers on the grounds, and appearances by May Hutton.

Sierra Silver Mine—Wallace’s oldest attraction celebrates its 31st season with new displays at the mine. The wood has been restored on the trolleys.

Silver Streak—The zipline opened its second course - the east course - which features four zips. The zipline continues to get lots of good press, plus groups from near and far. The zipline is now operating seven days a week.

Valerie’s Flowers has extended its hours to include 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays. Flower arrangements from Valerie’s are also available at Harvest Foods.

The Fainting Goat Wine Bar is now open and features a variety of wines, beers and tappas. Future plans include offering wine dinners in September. The adjoining Tea Shoppe will feature different loose-leaf tea and a café with crepes and croissants.

Silver Mountain—Brewsfest is August 3. Top BBQ runs every Friday through August 30. The gondola is running five days a week through Sept. 2. A new beginner mountain bike trail has been added. Galena Ridge Golf Course and Silver Rapids Waterpark are open daily.

Gyros—Plans for Wallace to host the 2014 International Gyro Convention are already well under way.
